OBJECTIVE

... ..

WHAT DO I WANT?

I spent 15 years building the top labour agency in Vancouver. I changed the culture from where our hourly employees had been treated poorly (like garbage) to where we treated every worker with respect.

Life has taught me to only judge the behaviour of others by what they do in the present – our backstories can debilitate – it is essential to be cognizant of that reality.

I seek a position where I can use my unbounded creativity, fuelled with compassion and empathy, to help a reputable company grow their business in a responsible, compassionate way. Probably writing.

I played a massive role in driving the agency's success by playing an instrumental role in generating $78 million in revenue.

Then Covid-19 arrived, and at 60, I found myself on the outside looking in.

Life has humbled me, and the humbling has gifted me with unlimited skills.

The end of the previous sentence does not seem humble, so please disregard it; or change unlimited to, a whack of, no better yet, many.

Cutting to the chase, I need to work.

Whether that be sharing my fabulous writing and creativity skills.

Or

As you will see in my Jobs + Duties + Skills Section, I'm a well-rounded individual who will go above and beyond...

But you are afraid of heights.

I'm only slightly frightened, and besides, it's just a figure of speech.

...to bring my compassion and drive to whatever position you slot me into.

I'm a fantastic writer. I work incredibly hard trying to find homes for my writing. The process is glacially slow, and as it proceeds glacially slowly, I need to live indoors + eat.

If you hire me, I will give you everything I have for as long as I'm in your employment.

And besides, I'm a heck of a good guy!

REFERENCE LETTER

To Whom it May Concern

We wholeheartedly recommend Lindsay Wincherauk for the position with your company.

He has grown tremendously over his lengthy career with our company and was one of our team's most valuable and prolific contributors. Lindsay proved himself to be a hard-working, motivated, ambitious, charismatic, and reliable employee. We were sad the once-in-a-century pandemic changed our business's course; unfortunately, our relationship with Lindsay ended because of the pandemic.

Lindsay's contribution to our team was unquestionable, always going above and beyond what was expected of him. Lindsay was a joy to work with and was well-respected by clients, prospects, and coworkers. Lindsay was also respected and known in the industry for his passion and unflinching integrity. In fact, if it weren't for Lindsay's efforts during the economic collapse of 2008, our company likely would not have survived.

Lindsay was a tremendous contributor to our team internally, crafting documents to help our team run more smoothly. Hosting clients and potential franchise owners. Training new hires. Running customer events, including sporting tournaments and branding pools. Writing reference letters for our valued employees and even helping plan our holiday events.

Lindsay is extremely accountable and skilled at working independently while at the same time being proactive about contributing to the team and collaborating with his colleagues. Because Lindsay's so accountable and communicative, I have no doubt that Lindsay will excel on your team.

Lindsay's dedication, willingness to go the extra mile, and intangibles speak for themselves. I can attest Lindsay is an impressive, reliable, consistent, and creative employee who supports his colleagues, takes the initiative, treats everyone respectfully, and is an absolute pleasure to work with.

Without hesitation, I strongly recommend Lindsay Wincherauk for any position in your organization Lindsay has applied for. Lindsay would be a valuable asset in any role.

Warm Regards,

The Former Employer of Lindsay Wincherauk

COVER LETTER

... ..

I am submitting my Curriculum Vitae for your consideration.

Throughout the course of my life, I have gained unbounded experience which would make me an excellent candidate to join your team. I have been blessed with the greatest education available: LIFE.

Mine has been rich with highs and lows and I have been fortunate to have overcome whatever thrown my way with a smile on my face + without becoming too jaded.

My fifteen years with Trades Labour Corporation helped me hone a well-rounded skillset. I played an active role in every aspect of the company's operations. If I were starting my career life, this is where I would try to wow you with all of the wonderful things I can bring to your organization. But I'm not starting my career life and feel the exercise of doing so would ring disingenuous.

What I will say is, over the course of my work life, ranging from Dishwasher to DJ to Hair Model to Opinion Editorialist Author to Supervisor of Sales + Promotions, I have garnered a long list of accomplishments + skills. Life has rewarded me with a desire to constantly learn and share what I've learned in an effort to keep pressing forward.

Creativity is a passion.

I have published two books + have ten more completed, with several in the works. I became an Opinion Editorialist (24 Hours Vancouver) without stepping in a journalism school.

I am a Social Media Influencer with 10,000 Instagram followers.

My website www.lindsaywincherauk.com is nearing 200,000 visits.

Over the last four years I have written over 290 'Thoughts on Books' (most books were sent to me by publishers). Many of my thoughts have been featured on Author + Publisher websites.

I believe the most important thing in life is: Try. Try. Try.

Thank you for your consideration. I will wait patiently for your reply.

Cordially Yours
